

the purr-fect
solution
when you can't be there

VISIT CHECKLIST

beaverton cat sitting

1. Are there any unusual habits your cat has that I should be aware of such as not eating for a day or two, litter box quirks, meowing excessively, etc.? _____
2. Does your cat have specific hiding places? _____
3. Do I need to be aware of aggressive behavior? If so, what would encourage it? _____

4. Would your cat enjoy being brushed? If yes, how often? _____
5. Would your cat like to be played with? If yes, what type of play and how often? _____

6. If your cat needs medication, what is the best way to administer it? _____
7. I like to stay as close to your cat's normal routine as possible. What is your cat's normal food and water time and frequency? _____ What about medication time and frequency? _____ Is there anything else that should occur at a specific time? _____
8. Your cat's litter box will be scooped daily. How often would you like the litter box(es) changed completely? _____
_____ Where would you like litter disposed of? _____
9. Where are cleaning supplies stored? _____
10. Services you desire.....

_____ t.v. on/off	_____ bring in mail	security alarm code _____
_____ lights on/off	_____ bring in newspaper	activation _____
_____ radio on/off	_____ plants watered	deactivation _____
_____ blinds opened/closed	_____ garbage removal	alarm co. phone _____ _____ veterinary visit	_____ thermostat setting day: _____	evening: _____
11. Which door would you prefer me to use? _____
12. Is there anything else that may be of importance in your cat's care? _____
